

Catholic Social Teaching Across the Curriculum

Different subjects. One mission.

*"Together
we can do great things."*

Drama

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING IN DRAMA

Finding voices. Telling stories. Inspiring change.

Human Dignity

Every person's story matters. Drama helps us see the humanity in everyone.

The Common Good

Drama builds empathy and brings people together, strengthening our community.

Participation

Everyone has a voice and a role. Drama encourages confidence, collaboration and respect.

Option for the Poor

Theatre can highlight injustice and give a voice to those who are unheard or marginalised.

Solidarity

Through performance we can stand with others and experience different perspectives.

Stewardship

Using our creativity responsibly, valuing others' ideas and working together to create something meaningful.

*"Theatre gives us
a place to imagine a better world."*

Music

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING IN MUSIC

Creating harmony. Building community.

Human Dignity

Every voice has value. Music celebrates the uniqueness of each person.

The Common Good

Music unites people across cultures and builds a more peaceful, harmonious world.

Participation

Everyone can contribute through performance, composition or listening. Music is for all.

Option for the Poor

Music can raise awareness, give a voice to the marginalised and advocate for justice.

Solidarity

Shared music builds belonging and helps us stand with others, locally and globally.

Stewardship

Using our musical talents and gifts well, respecting our resources and sharing them generously with others.

"Music has the power to bring people together."
