

Basildon

Employment

74.9% of Basildon residents are currently employed. This is lower than the national average, 75.1%.

Unemployment

4.6% of Basildon residents are currently unemployed. This is the same as the national average, 4.6%.

Salary

Gross disposable household income is £22,236 per year

Qualifications

41.3% of Basildon residents have a Level 3 qualification or higher (26.7% below the national average)

In demand skills

- Auditing
- Project Management
- Invoicing
- Warehousing
- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs)

Sectors set to grow

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Digital & Creative Industries
- Professional, Scientific & Technical Services

From 2013 to 2023, jobs increased by 13.1% in Basildon, reaching 103,700

Predicted job growth

Basildon job growth is projected to increase by 12,000 jobs by 2026, increasing the total from 103,700 to 115,700

Where are most of the jobs now?

Finance

Health and Social Care

Local Government

Construction

