

15th Week of Ordinary Time:

Our Theme this week is Endings

As we reach the end of another academic year, we are reminded that every ending is also the beginning of something new. Over the past year we have learned, grown, faced challenges, celebrated successes, and made memories that will stay with us.

As we thank God for all that this year has brought, let us carry forward the lessons we have learned, the kindness we have shared, and the hope that comes with every new beginning.

Our Morning Prayer Monday of the 15th week of Ordinary Time

13th July

Theme of the Week: Endings

1. + In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Let us remember we are in the presence of God.
R/ Let us adore him.

Our thoughts and prayers are again with all the people of Venezuela after two devastating earthquakes near Caracas.

Faithful God,
even when the earth shakes,
your love remains firm.
You are our refuge and help.
Be near the people of Venezuela,
in this time of grief and fear.

Welcome into your light
those who have died,
comfort those who mourn,
be close to those who are injured and bring renewed hope to those who have lost all that they built.

Move us, and the world,
to respond urgently and generously,
in this time of crisis
and keep us united in solidarity, walking with the people of Venezuela,
in the long journey of recovery ahead.
Amen.

Ordinary Time

14th July

Theme of the Week:
Endings

1. + In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Let us remember we are in the presence of God.

R/ Let us adore him.

Pg 28 of your prayer book

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow
Love;
Where there is injury, Pardon;
Where there is doubt, Faith;
Where there is despair, Hope;
Where there is darkness Light;
Where there is sadness, Joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen

Morning Prayer - Feast Of St. Bonaventure

15th July

Theme of the Week:
Endings

St Bonaventure was a brilliant teacher, writer and bishop who loved both learning and God. He believed that growing in knowledge should always help us grow closer to Jesus and become kinder people.

St Bonaventure reminds us that success is not just about getting good grades, but about using our gifts to serve others with humility and love.

As we continue our own journey, may we ask God to help us learn with open minds, love with generous hearts, and always seek His wisdom in everything we do.

1. + In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen

Let us remember we are in the presence of God.
R/ Let us adore him.

Pg 6 of your Prayer Books;

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Our Morning Prayer
Thursday of the 15th week of Ordinary Time

16th July

Theme of the Week:
Endings

1. + In the name of the Father
and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen

Let us remember we are in the presence of God.
R/ Let us adore him.

Dearest Lord,

Teach me to be generous;

Teach me to serve You as You deserve;
To give and not to count the cost,
To fight and not to heed the wounds,
To toil and not to seek for rest,
To labour and not to ask for any reward,
Save that of knowing that I do Your will.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen
